

K-Love serves as a valuable venue to local and national news combined in a Christian venue. It allows a station that has high moral values that everyone can listen. It teaches valuable lessons on life and living in a high moral standing. K-Love brings messages of hope and goodwill that if it were to be take off the air, here in San Diego we would have no other options. K-Love is a wonderful service to the community by it's teachings and integrity.
